BACKGROUND INFORMATION: Juan Villarreal, President of the Library Board of Trustees will present the Library Volunteer of the Year Award to Patricia Stump.

At their March 19, 2001 meeting, the Library Board of Trustees established the Bob Hildreth Library Volunteer of the Year Award to be awarded during National Library Week to the library volunteer who contributed significantly to the support of library services for the Lodi Public Library and the residents of Lodi.

The 2007 recipient of this service award is Patricia Stump. Ms. Stump has been an active member of the library's Adult Literacy Services since 2001. As a tutor in the program she has simultaneously taught over 6 adult learners to read and improve their command of English even helping one to earn her U.S. citizenship. Pat's students have difficulty coming to the library so Pat spends a day each week going to their homes for their tutoring sessions. As her nomination summed her up, "Pat is a conscientious and dedicated tutor, not only delivering well-planned lessons to her students, but consistently going above and beyond to be of assistance to her students."
